The Pine Cone

Greenwood High School

Lemon Springs, North Carolina

Dedication

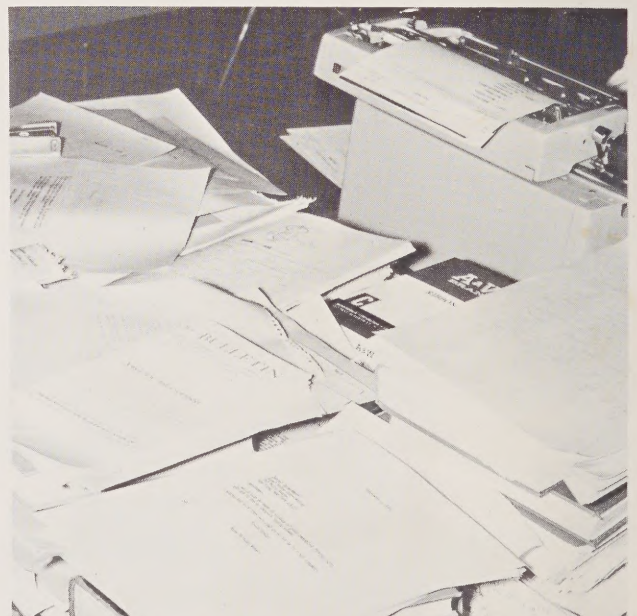

To one whose friendship we cherish; whose devotion to the aims of education and charity we envy; and whose example we shall try to make a part of our living, we, the staff of the 1964 PINE CONE, dedicate this book to MISS SHIRLEY WOMACK with our unlimited affection and respect.

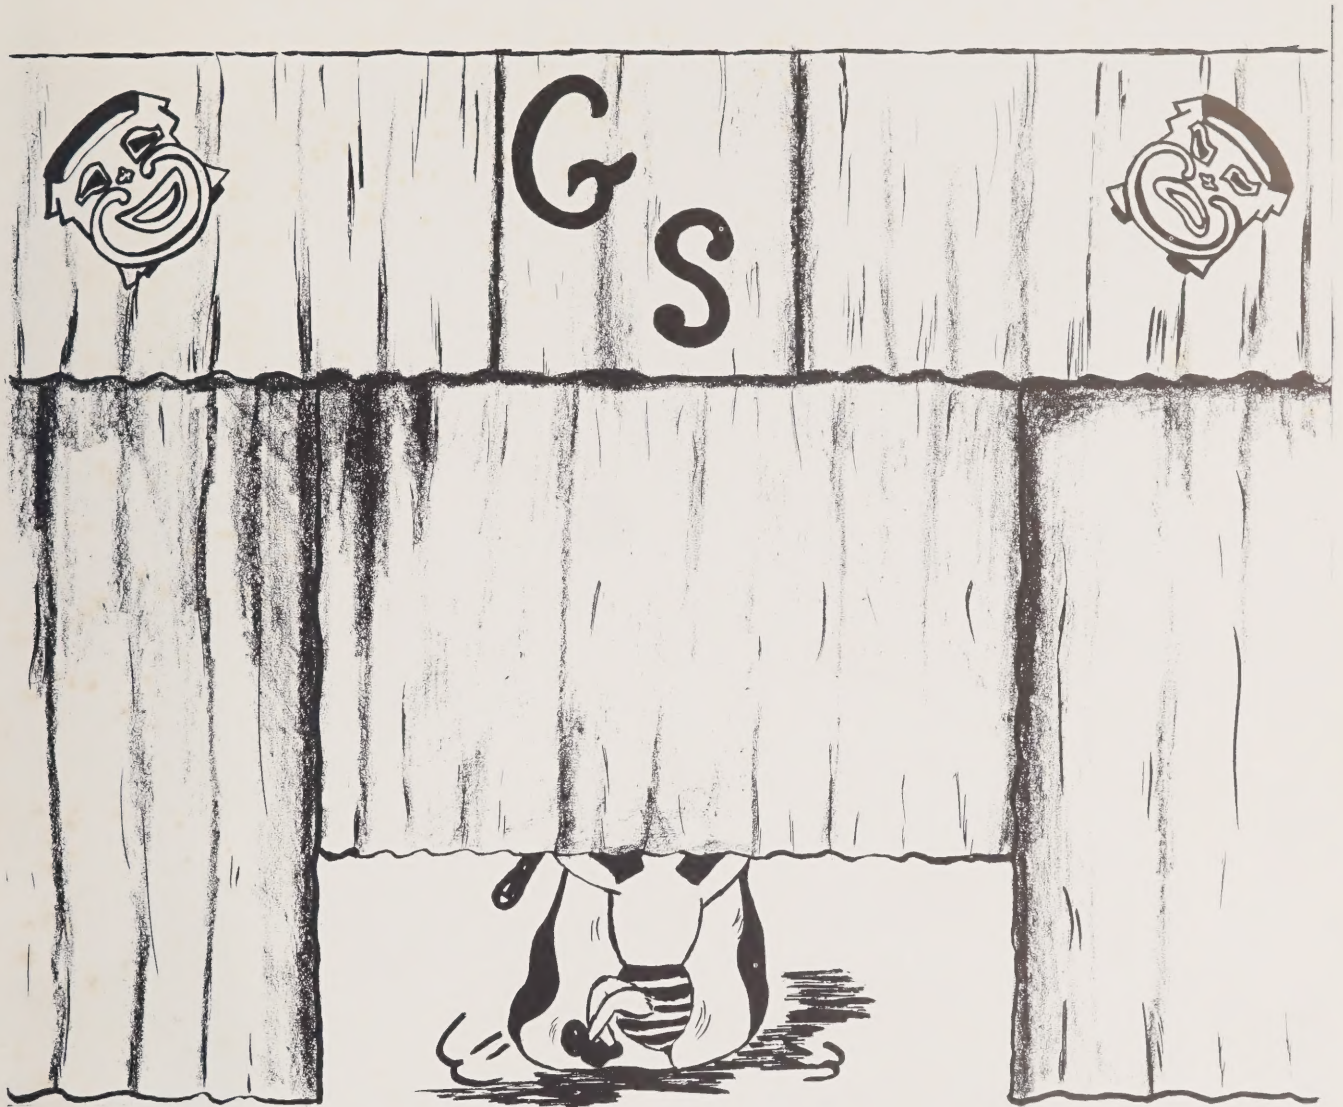

Miss Womack is always willing to lend a helping hand cheerfully.

Somewhere beneath this lies a desk,

Curtain Going Up

Foreword

We are pleased to present the PINE CONE. The theme of our annual this year is a play—the Horner's Nest, narrated by Homer Horner. In our play, the school is the stage and the students are the actors. Our principal and teachers direct us. There are three acts to our play, in which we have tried to show the different aspects of school life.

We hope that you will always cherish the memory of the happy hours spent here, and shall look back upon them with a great deal of pleasure in the days to come and remember the role you played in this play.
